LID IS CLAMPED IN BUENOS AIRES

CITY ONCE SAID TO BE "GAYER THAN PARIS" IS NOT WHAT IT USED TO BE IN OLD DAYS

By the Associated Press

BUENOS AIRES, March 14.—Buenos Aires, which once had the reputation of being a "wide open" city and "gayer than Paris" is "not what it used to be" in the opinion of many travelers who were here before the war and have returned recently.

The gaiety is still here, they say, but it is more decorous and meantime the lid has been clamped upon many resorts in which the worst sort of license was wont to flourish openly. Public gambling places have been also banned, dissolute women have been driven off the streets, and beginning this year the police have begun the suppression of houses of ill fame. The claim is made that Buenos Aires is today cleaner morally than ever before in its history due to the "reform" regulation of a recent city administration and continued by the present one.

The City Council also a few days ago passed an ordinance imposing a tax of 20,000 pesos annually on cabarets, which is expected to put some of the lower class places out of business. La Epoca, the government organ, in approving the measure, refers to the Buenos Aires cabarets as "establishments of corruption" and demands that minors be prohibited from entering them. What are termed "cabarets" in Buenos Aires are merely dance halls with an orchestra, and, with one or two exceptions, are poorly furnished. Drinks are served, but there are none of the entertainment features which made the cabaret successful in the United States. Here and in the restaurants, both of which are open all night, is where most of Buenos Aires "gayety" centers.

Theaters and moving picture houses do not close until 12 or 13:30 o'clock. As late as two o'clock numerous restaurants and cafes are still filled with men and some women, with orchestras or electric pianos going full blast. Streets in the "gay life" district are still brilliantly lighted, taxicabs flit about and the sidewalks have many strollers. What is called "revelling" in the restaurants, is, however, not in evidence. The patrons sit and listen to the music, eat or sip their wine or other drinks, but, as an American (Continued on Page 4)

ALICE JOYCE MARRIES AGAIN; NEW HUBBY WILL NOT ENTER ANY BRANCH OF MOVIES

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Regan, Jr.

Alice Joyce, the screen star, and James B. Regan, Jr., son of the proprietor of the Hotel Knickerbocker, were married recently in Holy Innocents Church, New York. The service was performed by Father Thomas Lynch, pastor of the church. Regan is twenty-six years old. He is an alumnus of Yale, of the class of 1915. In that year he entered the British army and saw considerable service on both the western and eastern fronts. When the United States entered the war, he enlisted in the American army. He resigned after the armistice, having risen from the rank of a private to that of a first lieutenant. He has a citation from the Serbian government. Alice Joyce was formerly the wife of Tom Moore, whose brother, Owen, was divorced by Mary Pickford in Nevada recently. The immediate members of both families were the only ones present at the ceremony. Regan will continue his association with his father, it is said.

Seven I. W. W.'s Found Guilty of Centralia Murder

By the Associated Press

MONTESANO, Wash., March 13.—Seven of the ten I. W. W. charged with the murder of Warren O. Grimm, one of four soldiers shot during an armistice day parade at Centralia, Wash., were found guilty tonight of second degree murder. Three others were found not guilty. Loren Roberts, one of the trio, was acquitted on the ground of insanity.

Bullock's Final Word to Voters Of City of Ada

Tomorrow you will go to the polls to cast your votes for the officers who will have charge of your municipal affairs for the next two years, and while I regret the circumstances that have made it impossible for me to personally see and talk with you all, yet I have a deep and abiding faith in the sober, considerate judgment of the men and women of Ada who compose its citizenship and I believe you will put the stamp of your approval upon the things that I have always stood for in public and in private life.

We have come at last to the parting of the ways. We must go either forward or backward. There is no middle course. We must have the vision to see and understand that only by application of constructive policies can we advance the interests of our city and people.

To that end we must encourage the coming of new industries, see that labor is well paid, and that every dollar expended for public improvements is represented by value received.

We believe in clean streets, clean alleys, a clean city and in proper sanitary conditions. Clean not only in a physical sense but morally as well. We want it so that our wives and daughters can go unafraid upon our streets, night or day. We want proper surroundings under which to bring up our boys and girls.

We believe in public improvements, in beautifying our city, in extending our public park system.

These are some of the things that I in common with every good citizen stand for.

I appeal to you, my friends and fellow citizens, to stand behind me in the laudable ambition to make Ada a better and bigger city.

Remember, I am in the race to the finish. Do not be influenced by the reports that are being industriously circulated for political purposes, that I am not interested in the outcome.

Vote for me for mayor if you can consistently do so and if elected, as I believe I will be, I will try to give you no cause to regret your work in my behalf.

Williams Succeeds Roper

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 15.—William Martin Williams of Alabama will succeed Daniel C. Roper as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Mr. Williams' selection by President Wilson, was announced today at the White House. He is solicitor for the department of agriculture, and was recommended for his new post by Secretary of the Treasury, Houston, who formerly was Secretary of Agriculture.

FIRE DESTROYS GRANDVIEW, TEX.

HIGH WINDS RENDERED FIRE FIGHTERS HELPLESS; SEVEN
DOWN TOWN BLOCKS ARE WIPE OUT

By the Associated Press

GRANDVIEW, Texas, March 15.—Dawn today found this farming town of more than one thousand inhabitants virtually in ruins from a fire which burned from yesterday afternoon until early this morning destroying seven down-town business blocks, two hundred residences, and causing property damage estimated at between $1,500,000.00 and $2,000,000.00.

About one thousand persons were made homeless, many of them losing everything. As far as could be determined today there had been no loss of life. Whether it will be necessary to request outside assistance has not been determined.

The fire fanned by a high wind originated in the south part of town. When it was discovered the flames were beyond control. Fire-fighting apparatus from nearby towns was brought in but later in the day the water supply failed and further efforts were useless.

SOVIET GOVERNMENT FOR GERMANY NOW?

By the Associated Press

PARIS, March 15.—Independent socialists and communists met yesterday at Mannheim and decided to take advantage of the present situation in Germany and proclaim a Soviet Government, according to advice from Basle, Switzerland, the news having reached that city by telephone. Majority and independent socialists throughout Germany appear to be uniting against the military movement instituted at Berlin on Saturday, according to a Basle dispatch.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

February Cotton Consumption.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 15.—Cotton consumed during February amounted to 516,594, equivalent 500 pound bales of lint, and 26,230 bales of linters, the census bureau announced today.

Gustav Noske Recognized.

By the Associated Press
BERLIN (By wireless to London) March 15.—It is reported here that the South German generals and the Saxon troops have given their adherence to Gustav Noske, minister of defense in the Ebert government.

Blue Jacket Store Looted.

MIAMI, Okla., March 15.—Burglars last night looted the general store at Blue Jacket, 15 miles southwest of here, and escaped with goods valued at $1,000. Several shot guns and rifles were included in the loot.

New Jersey to Fight Drys

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 15.—New Jersey was granted permission today by the Supreme Court to institute original proceedings to test the validity of the prohibition amendment.

Bernstorff To See Ebert

By the Associated Press
BERLIN March 15.—Count Von Bernstorff, former German ambassador at Washington is reported to have gone to Stuttgart to negotiate with President Ebert and Premier Bauer of the government which was ousted Saturday by the reactionary revolt.

PAVING WAY FOR FINAL TREATY VOTE

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Paving the way for a final vote on the reservation to Article 10, the senate today rejected 59 to 17, a substitute proposing summary disavowal of all obligations. The senate also promptly rejected, 46 to 30, the substitute reservation drafted by former President Taft, which was offered in the bi-partisan conference by Senator Hitchcock and presented to the senate today by Senator Kirby. The draft disavowed any legal obligations but gave congress power to act under moral obligations.

GOLF KEEPS ROCKEFELLER YOUNG; "RICHEST MAN" IS PAST EIGHTY

John D. Rockefeller as he looks today

This unusual photograph of the world's richest man was taken a few days ago while he was at play at Ormond Beach, Florida. John D. Rockefeller, Sr., who will be eighty-one years young next July, keeps his remarkable health by devoting a large part of his time to his favorite recreation—golf.

John Rawls Is Officially in Sheriff's Race

In the political announcement column today will be found the name of John Rawls, who officially announces for the office of Sheriff of Pontotoc county.

There is little the News can say about John Rawls that is not already known to the older residents of this county as he has lived in the Indian Territory country since he was fourteen years of age, and has been a resident of Ada since it started in a cotton patch nearly twenty years ago.

John Rawls was born in Hot Springs, Ark., 45 years ago, and secured a common school education and fought his way to manhood by the efforts of his own genius. He is what might be termed a self made man, and his education in the school of experience since the days of his boyhood fit him especially for the office of sheriff in a pioneer country like this of ours.

Mr. Rawls has never asked for a public county office, yet since his manhood he has held commissions in the capacity of an enforcement officer of some kind or other, due to his natural ability for that character of work. For seven years he has served the city of Ada most efficiently as chief of police, and never for an instant has he been suspected of not being absolutely fair to all classes and fearless to the last.

Mr. Rawls is thoroughly familiar with the history of the work of the sheriff's department in this county ever since it became a county. He solicits the earnest consideration of every voter of Pontotoc county at the August primary, both male and female, and if elected to the office he seeks will endeavor to discharge the duties of the same to the very best of his ability.

American Troops Under Wilson
WASHINGTON, March 15.—While technically still under the direction of Marshall Foch, American troops on the Rhine would not participate in any allied advance into Germany without specific directions from President Wilson. It was said today at the war department.

Revolt in Japanese Army

By the Associated Press
LONDON, March 15.—A revolt has broken out among several units of Japanese troops in Siberia, according to a wireless dispatch sent out by the Soviet government at Moscow. The soldiers tore off their shoulder straps and substituted red straps, the dispatch says.

Fitzhugh Man Is Discharged In Justice Court

Harry Spann of the Fitzhugh country was tried in Justice Brown's court this morning on a charge of removing detained stock. It seems that T. L. McPherson had taken up some cattle and colts belonging to Spann and was holding them for damages. Someone removed the stock from the enclosure where they were being kept, and McPherson had Spann arrested on a charge of removing them. At the hearing this morning Judge Brown decided that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant a conviction and he discharged the defendant.

It seems that McPherson and Spann had already had a personal combat because of this trouble and Spann had paid a fine for fighting on his plea of guilty.

W. B. Robertson left today for Winnipeg, Canada, after visiting for the past week with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Cooper Robertson. He is a linotype operator on the Winnipeg Free Press, and during the late war served four and a half years with the Canadian troops in Flanders, being wounded three times.

EBERT FORCES TO RETALIATE

OUSTED FROM POWER SATUR-DAY, EBERT FORCES IN GER-MANY ARE ORGANIZING TO COME BACK

By the Associated Press

BERLIN, March 15.—Leaders of the Ebert government ousted from power by the sudden reactionary revolt Saturday morning, are apparently gathering their forces to combat the new regime. They are being aided by the forces of labor, which have declared a general strike throughout Germany as a protest against the changes in the nation's government.

Prussia seems to be the nucleus around which the military leaders have built up their movement. Reports from various cities in other parts of Germany would indicate that Gustave Noske, Minister of Defense in the old government, has forces at his disposal and that there is possible opposition to the new regime. Even in Hamburg the old government is said to have taken control of strategic points, and the Hamburg senate has issued a proclamation denouncing the new government and declaring its intention to retain control of the state.

Men who are directing the policies of the government headed by Dr. Von Kapp have not yet secured political support, although a statement issued last night, declared the prestige of the government has increased in south Germany since Saturday. Fatalities in the fighting at Frankfurt, and adoption of resolutions by workmen at Dusseldorf, Essen and Cologne against the revolt, would not reflect sentiment in those localities favorable to the government installed in office on Saturday.

Chancellor Von Kapp has announced that he would take desired steps to suppress any insurrection by strikers, but it does not seem probable that he can prevent a wholesale stoppage of work in Berlin and throughout Germany. There are indications that the socialist parties will attempt to bring about a complete tie-up of business today or tomorrow.

Berlin Government's Request.

By the Associated Press
LONDON, March 15.—One of the first acts of the new government in Berlin was to request recognition from the allied commissions in Germany, according to an official British message today. The request was ignored, the commissions taking the attitude that they would not extend recognition even to the extent of answering the communication.

LATE NEWS MAKES THE KAISER NERVOUS

By the Associated Press

AMERONGEN, March 14.—Former Emperor William spent the greater part of today in the garden of Bentinck Castle where he paced up and down with every evidence of being under a nervous tension. Religious services which have been held regularly every Sunday at the castle, were omitted today.

The strain of events of the last few days seem to weigh so heavily upon his mind that he cannot tolerate the company of others and he makes every effort to get out of doors.

Let a Want Ad Get it for You.

Public Speaking This Evening

Hon. W. P. Hill of McAlester will address the citizens of Ada this evening on "The Managerial Form of Government." Mr. Hill is in Ada on legal business and at the urgent request of the Chamber of Commerce has consented to remain over tonight and discuss the question of city management. The meeting will be held at the district court room and the speaking will begin at 8 o'clock sharp.

Mr. Hill will tell of conditions obtaining in McAlester prior to the adoption of the present form of government there. He will tell of the changes that have been made under the new plan. He will tell how McAlester is now getting paving done for twenty five per cent less than it cost ten years ago, notwithstanding the abnormal increase in the cost of paving material. He was one of the leaders in the fight to establish the managerial plan in McAlester and took part in the recent successful fight to adopt that plan at Muskogee. He is an able speaker and will have a message this evening well worth hearing.

If you are interested in the progress of Ada and in the principles of good government, attend the meeting this evening and learn what you can concerning the managerial form of government.

Just a Matter of Duty

Two duties confront every voter in the city of Ada. The first duty is to go to the polls tomorrow and vote in the city election. The second duty is to vote for the best interests of the city by voting for the candidates best qualified to advance the interests of the city.

Neither duty will be dodged by any good citizen. The right to vote has been paid for at a frightful cost and is a right held sacred by every loyal American. Every man and every woman who loves America regards the suffrage as a sacred duty and will not remain away from the polls on election day. Next to the sin of voting wrongly is the sin of not voting at all. So every citizen who deserves the franchise will vote tomorrow.

Simply to vote is not sufficient. The voter must vote an honest and conscientious ballot. He must vote for the interest of the city by voting for the best candidates. The intelligent voter will realize that tomorrow's election will go far to fix the destiny of Ada. If candidates who belong to the midwestern past are selected to conduct the city's affairs, the city itself will become a rendezvous of mossbacks. The city cannot grow and reach the rank it is in duty bound to reach, if men of the village type are put in control of its destiny.

Let the citizens of Ada ponder this tremendous fact—that Ada has already reached its maximum growth if it depends on the agricultural interests about it to maintain its prosperity. Ada is today as large as the agricultural interests of the county can make it. Unless we secure additional manufacturing interests, we cannot reach the standard of which we have dreamed. And we cannot reach that standard if we elect to high positions men who are opposed to manufacturing interests, who would seek to cripple such interests, and who would seek to make cheap political capital by attacking such interests.

Bear this grave fact in mind when preparing your ballot. Ada is a $7,000,000 business. How many of the candidates aspiring to city office just now are qualified to sit on the board of directors of a $7,000,000 business? Which of the candidates is best qualified to manage a $7,000,000 business? Answer these questions as best you can and vote your judgment and your conscience for the best interests of Ada and of the highest and humblest of its citizens.

AERONAUTIC SHOW IS ON IN CHICAGO

VARIOUS LARGE AIRCRAFT COMPANIES DEMONSTRATING GOOD POINTS OF THEIR MACHINES.

By the Associated Press CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Exhibition flying and the roar of propellers as well as displays of many types of American and allied aircraft will be a part of the aeronautical show, to be held here January 8-15, inclusive. The show is to be given with the approval and patronage of the Manufacturers' Aircraft Association, Inc., and will be followed later in the year by similar shows in New York and San Francisco.

Pilots of the various large aircraft corporations will demonstrate safety devices and will display the good points of their craft. If the weather makes it possible, Walter Hempel, secretary of the executive committee in charge of the show, says that the exhibition will probably be over Grant Park on the lake front. According to him one pilot has promised to make a parachute jump from a plane only seventy-five feet off the ground.

Little one-man scouts will be ranged alongside of great multi-passenger planes and gas filled blimps in the Coliseum where the display will be. Eddie Rickenbacker, American ace of aces, will visit the show and one of the bullet-riddled Spads he flew over the Western Front will be on display. Reed Landis, who became an ace and a flight commander while serving with the British, will also visit the show. There will be a Rickenbacker and a Landis day.

British aviation will be represented by the Inter-Allied Aircraft Corporation. The Avro British training plane—will be one of the planes the corporation will show. Colonel William Bishop, leading Canadian ace, will visit the show, according to present plans. He has seventy-two Hunts to his credit. Curtiss planes of many types will be there, including the little triplane in which the world's altitude record was broken, and the Eagle—a three-motored eight-passenger bus.

Army, navy and postal department planes and aeronautical appliances will be part of an educational exhibit. There will be non-inflamable parachutes, steel propellers, tiny models of new types of craft, anti-aircraft guns, flares, radio telephones, aerial bombs and flying torpedoes. An aerial post-office will be maintained in the Coliseum. A Thomas-Morse mail ship, capable of carrying 2,000 tons with trigger arrangements to drop pouches in flight will be exhibited. The Canadian Air Board will be represented and the Aviation Club of Chicago will show official pictures of the British Air Force, loaned for the occasion. Old-time planes, including one which Lincoln Beachy flew, will be shown in contrast to the safe and powerful ships now built.

Last Remnant of the Ottawa Indians Dies In Grant's Pass, Ore.

By the Associated Press OTTAWA, Kan., Jan. 9.—The death of Christopher Columbus Wind, last of the remnant of the Ottawa Indians, in Grant's Pass, Ore., recently recalls early day history, and the incorporation of the town of Ottawa and how it derives its name in 1886. Wind was born in 1846, a son of James Wind, near Topeka. When Christopher was a small boy, the father, last chief of the Ottawas, moved to this section of the state, settling near the place where the town of Ottawa later was founded. The Ottawas were known as "civilized" Indians. For a time after the town was organized they continued to live north of the Marais des Cygnes river near here. Chief James Wind was succeeded in 1870 by Chief Wilson. Later the Ottawas moved to an Oklahoma reservation. A leader and teacher among the Ottawas, John Tecumseh Jones, better known as Tawa or Taw Jones, founded Ottawa University in 1895. Various streets in Ottawa are named for Ottawa Indians, including Wilson and Tecumseh.

OWEN MAN DENIES M'ADOO'S CLAIMS

SAYS OWEN AND NOT M'ADOO WAS THE ORIGINATOR OF THE POPULAR RESERVE BANK PLAN

Claims made by George Creel that former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo conceived of and accomplished the passage of the federal reserve banking act and the farm loan act are denied in an open letter to Creel written last week by James W. Beller, former secretary to Senator Owen and manager at present of the Washington headquarters of the Owen-for-President club.

In an article on McAdoo in the Literary Digest of February 28, Creel said "The keen McAdoo mind conceived the idea of the federal reserve system and his indomitable determination drove it through in the face of bitter opposition." He made a similar statement in regard to the passage of the farm loan act.

"Members of Congress know," "Both of these statements are incorrect," Beller says in claiming the honor for Senator Owen. "It is not only with the personal knowledge of every member of Congress who participated in the passage of the federal reserve act, but it is also a matter of record that the man who conceived the idea of the federal reserve system and who was primarily and principally responsible for the framing and passage of that act is Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma."

"The banking and currency committee of the senate was created in 1913 for the express purpose of enabling Senator Owen, who was made its chairman, to formulate and present through an appropriate channel those views upon the subject of a federal reserve system which he had consistently advocated from the time of their initial presentation by him to the resolutions committee of the democratic national convention of 1896."

"McAdoo, as secretary of the treasury, appeared before the banking and currency committee of the senate and submitted suggestions both orally and in writing as to the federal reserve act. Only those suggestions which accorded with the views of Senator Owen were incorporated in the act. McAdoo opposed certain provisions of the act which represented Senator Owen's views, and while those provisions were eliminated temporarily from the act they were ultimately incorporated in it. In fact it is impossible to conceive of any legislative act for which one man is more directly responsible or more entitled to credit than is Senator Owen in relation to the federal reserve act."

Beller supports his assertion as to the authorship of the federal farm loan act by quoting from a letter to Senator Owen from Senator Hollis of New Hampshire, who introduced the bill in the senate, in which the latter gives Senator Owen full credit for that measure.

Hollis letter is Quoted "I hope that the country sometime will realize what you have done for it in inspiring and bringing to realization the federal farm loan act as well as the federal reserve act," Senator Hollis said.

Many of the important features of the farm loan act, Beller says, were taken from a bill introduced previously by Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, who first conceived the idea of establishing the farm loan system.

In addition to being secretary to Senator Owen Beller was clerk of the banking and currency committee of the senate and had an opportunity in that position to understand exactly the part taken by members of the committee in the shaping of financial legislation.

Obituary.

Rev. A. W. Solomon. Died at his home at Vanoss, Oklahoma, Jan. 6, 1920.

Rev. Solomon was born in Kentucky. He came west in his early youth. He was a western cowboy for a long time and endured the hardships of the pioneer country. During the Civil War he joined the army for protection against the bushwhacker and served with honor to himself and his country. After peace reigned in the country he married and reared a large family, all of whom are law abiding and liberty loving citizens. Two of these sons gave volunteer service in the world war. He lived most of his latter life in Texas and Oklahoma, having lived at Vanoss, Okla., the last twelve years.

He was converted in his youth, later giving twenty-three years to his country his talent as an evangelist for the Free Will Baptist Church. After he became physically unable to fill the pulpit he continued to wield a wholesome influence in both church and Sunday school work.

My having taught in his school district, I have on different occasions heard him make fine talks to the school children, and noticed he enjoyed so much hearing them recite their lessons, especially their Sunday school work. The last time he attended church and Sunday school was at Lightning Ridge Dec. 28, 1919. On this occasion he was called on to make a talk. He was physically unable to do so, but did lead a short prayer. While Sunday school was in session, he happened to be sitting near where I was teaching a class and as I finished my work he addressed me and handed me a nice contribution for the class, saying, "Give this to the children." I did so, with an explanation from a Bible standpoint. From this meeting he returned to his home and was stricken with pneumonia that afternoon.

The death angel called him from this life Tuesday at 4 A. M., Jan. 6, 1920. He was about 74 years old at the time of his death. Owing to the awful cold and rainy weather religious services at the grave consisted of a few songs and a prayer; his funeral is to be preached later. His body was laid away in the Lightning Ridge cemetery Jan. 7, 1920, his grave being most beautifully decorated with a large Masonic floral offering, made in Masonic form and order. He was a Royal Arch Mason.

He is survived by a brother, a sister, a wife and nine children. His sons are, William, Carl, Dave, Bud, James (Pet) and Mark; his daughters are, Gladys, Mrs. Edith Roundtree and Mrs. Dannie Citron. All of his family live at Vanoss except Mrs. Citron, who lives at Coalgate, Oklahoma.

His host of friends join me in extending to his family our deepest sympathy in their bereavement. His gain is his family's and his other friends' loss, but may we all meet him again some bright day where all is eternal happiness.

A devoted friend of the deceased and his family.

JOHNSON ALONE IN NORTH DAKOTA

PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY TOMORROW WITH ONLY ONE CANDIDATE ENTERED IN RACE.

By the Associated Press
BISMARCK, N. D., March 15.—

North Dakota faces the unique situation of a presidential preference primary on March 16 with but one candidate entered. Senator Hiram W. Johnson stands alone in the field. Intra-party delegation contests, pivoting about the Non-Partisan League constitute the chief barbed wire entanglements on the voters' battlefield.

Major General Leonard Wood and Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, refrained from filing nominations in this state after a second republican state convention had voted that delegates to the national convention should go uninstructed.

William Jennings Bryan withdrew his name as democratic candidate, leaving the California senator a challenger without opposition.

The primary is to elect for each party a national committeeman, five presidential electors and ten national convention delegates.

For national committeeman the republicans have two candidates and the democrats two, for presidential electors, republicans 14, democrats 10; for national delegates, republicans 22, democrats 20. The primary ballot includes one complete set of delegates named by a group which endorsed Senator Johnson.

Political observers declare the ranks of both republicans and democrats within the state have been divided on the issue of the Non-Partisan League. Voters of each party have before them candidates declared to be informally supported by the farmers' organization as opposed to the "old line" nominees.

There is considerable speculation in political circles as to whether the republican delegation elected will be bound to vote for Senator Johnson at the Chicago convention. Under the state law the delegate takes oath that he will to the best of his judgment and ability, faithfully carry out the wishes of his political party as expressed by the primary.

For the first time in this state, women will vote for presidential electors, but under a ruling of the state supreme court, cannot vote for delegates to the national conventions, although the state may be represented in those conventions by women delegates, one of whom has been nominated by each party. The primary ballot includes the name of William Grant Webster, republican, of New York, for vice president. Four constitutional amendments and four initiated measures to repeal laws affecting boxing, sale of cigarettes, Sunday baseball and theaters are to be voted on.

THE ACQUISITION OF BRITISH WEST INDIES WOULD STRENGTHEN PANAMA DEFENSES

Map showing how islands of the West Indies form a natural chain of defense for the Panama canal.

It has been proposed in the United States, and the proposal has met with much favorable comment in Great Britain, that in part payment of England's great debt to this country, the British government cede to the U. S. government some or all of the former's possessions in the West Indies. The islands mentioned include the Bermuda and Bahama groups, Jamaica and the Barbados.

Some of the British islands would be particularly valuable to the United States in that they would strengthen the chain of defenses being thrown about the Panama canal. "We have now become the leading economic power in the world, and have developed the Panama canal and a navy and merchant marine which makes these islands more than ever important to us," says William C. McAdoo, President Wilson's son-in-law. Might it not be possible to work out a plan by which England's debt to us could be reduced by the transfer to us of certain British possessions in the western hemisphere to the extent of their value?

The British empire at this moment comprises one-sixth of the land area of the whole world, and, according to British economic experts, the surplus capital of the mother country will for many years to come be agricultural and mineral resources of the great self-governing dominions and of India. "I imagine that Great Britain would not object to such a disposition of these islands, especially as they would be to a friendly power. I see nothing in such a proposal to offend the just pride of a great people, whereas such a liquidation of a portion of the British debt might be a happy solution of a part of Great Britain's immediate financial problem."

HAWAII KICKS ON "DRY" REGULATIONS

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Eighteen months of prohibition in the territory of Hawaii has failed to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor according to Gov. C. J. McCarthy, who is now in Washington with his attorney general, Harry Irwin, seeking the assistance of department of justice officials in an effort to amend the law as applied to Hawaii in order that enforcement may be made possible.

Under the present law, according to Governor McCarthy, manufacturing and selling liquor is an offense against the federal government, and offenders may be proceeded against only by federal courts. There are but two federal officials in the entire Hawaiian territory empowered to make arrests and but two federal judges before whom cases may be tried. Hawaii has a population of more than 120,000 Japanese. The Japanese have been very active in setting up illicit stills, and as a result of the inadequate machinery of prosecution have been reaping huge profits through the sale of a distilled liquor known as "ekele-hau."

"The original moonshine drink in the islands," said Governor McCarthy, "was made by boiling the roots of the 'ti' plant and distilling the liquid after it had fermented. The still was made of a tin oil can and a gun barrel. This liquor tasted not unlike Scotch whiskey, and outside of it not being aged was not a bad drink. Since prohibition has come in the Japanese construct their stills with galvanized pipe when the gun barrel is not available and use the native fruits, pineapples, bananas, etc. The distilling process with the galvanized pipe brings into the liquid some sort of a chemical which renders the drinker stone blind."

Governor McCarthy and Attorney General Irwin, after consulting the department of justice, will ask congress to amend the present law so that these offenders may be proceeded against by the territorial and municipal authorities and their cases tried in the territorial courts. The island of Oahu, upon which Honolulu is located, was made dry by order of the war department within a few weeks after the United States entered the war, and the entire territory became bone dry in August, 1918.

GORE LAUNCHES HIS CAMPAIGN

NOT IN THE OPEN AS A MAN
BUT AFFRONT OF HIS GROUND
BY THE GOVERNMENT
PRINTING OFFICE ROUTE

The long expected entrance of Senator Gore into the campaign for re-election to the Senate has occurred. He has entered the lists, but through the collapse of his plans for an oratorical hippodrome under the guise of a friendly joint discussion on Women's Suffrage, he has taken on the Government printing office route and by a self serving construction of the regulations governing the use of the franking privilege, which amounts to a flagrant abuse of that privilege, he is flooding the State with a sixteen page plea in confession and avoidance of the unpatriotic and un-American record made by him before and during the war.

To secure the distribution of this combined apology and personal justification he has written a letter to postmasters alternately threatening and cajoling them under the guise of pretended friendship in the efforts to get his documentary campaign dope into the hands of Democratic voters.

This is the much-vaunted opening of his "campaign for vindication." With unctious, words and bald hypocrisy he seeks to turn aside the stern verdict of public condemnation for his disloyal conduct toward his party and the nation during the strenuous period of the war. He voices in this labored plea no sorrow or regret for the treacherous attacks which he and his kind aimed at the very power of the Republic to wage a war in defense of its honor and of humanity. Every line of his sixteen page brief is devoted to an explanation of his perfidy and his feeble and far-fetched efforts to justify his course and mollify, if he cannot appease, the wrath of the people whose patriotism and love of country he has outraged by his studied misrepresentation of their principles in the United States Senate.

Instead of coming home to be welcomed by a grateful people for his loyal and patriotic attitude during the war as Scott Ferris has been welcomed, Gore has, perhaps, shown a wise discretion in opening his campaign at long range. Oklahoma voters are in no humor to listen to his whining apologies ad eluminaly framed alibis while he still seeks to justify his desertion of the party and the principles to which they claim allegiance.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

My cuzzin Artie came over last nite, and me and him was playing lotto on the getting room floor and pop was smoking and thinking, and I whispered to Artie, Artie, I tell you lets wat. and Artie whispered, Wat? and I whispered, Lets see wich one can ask pop the hardest question.

Wich pritty soon we started to do, me saying, Pop?

Hey, sed pop still smoaking and thinking, and I sed, Do you know wat Arabs give their horses to eat in the desert?

Wy, dates and figs and things, I sippose, or maybe grass. But theres no grass in the desert is there, I sed. O I dont know. I dont know, for the love of mud, sutch a question, sed pop.

And he kepp on smoaking and thinking, and after a while Artie sed Uncle Will?

I dont know if he will or not, sed pop. Meaning it for a joak and Artie sed, Wats the differents between algebra and geometry?

Wy, as near as I can remember, sed pop, algebra deals with figures represented by X to the nth power and all that sort of thing, and geometry, wy geometry, geometry, geometry is—but youre not up to algebra, or geometry in skool yet, are you for peets sake.

No sir, sed Artie, and pop sed. Then you couldent possibly understand even if I explained.

And he kepp on smoaking and thinking, and me and Artie kepp on playing lotto and pritty soon I sed, Pop?

Wat, agen? sed pop.

Would it make much diffrents to the fishes if all the salt was suddinly took out of the ocean? I sed.

I dont know, I never thawt mutch about it, I sippose if fishes were used to salt baths and then—say do I look like a fish? Wat is this anyway, some kind of game? sed pop, and I sed, Yes sir, we're seeing who can ask the hardest question.

O, you dont tell me, how intristing, cleer out of heer, both of you, sed pop.

Wich we did, finishing the lotto game up in my room.

Iowa Legislature Puts on Style With New Voting Machine

By the Associated Press

DES MOINES, Ia., March 15.—The day of the roll call for the vote of members of the Iowa house of representatives is past. No longer will the clerk monotonously read the names of the representatives and take from fifteen minutes to half an hour to learn their attitude on any question. Hereafter all voting in the house will be by machine, and the time required will be from less than a minute to a few minutes at most.

Work of installing the machine, for which $18,000 was appropriated by the legislature at its last session, is about complete. When all is done the representatives will find a little contrivance on their desks in which is fitted a small key. A certain turn will record the representative as voting "yes;" another turn "no," and still a different turn will place him on record as present but not voting or paired. A light on his desk will show how he voted, and an electric light on a large board at the front of the house chamber will show the public how he stood on the question under consideration.

When the speaker of the house

New Discovery

THAT dangerous stage where a cold or cough or case of grippe might get the better of you may be nearer than you think. Prompt action with Dr. King's New Discovery will avert a long siege.

For fifty years it has loosened congested chests, dissipated tight-packed phlegm, broken vicious colds and coughs. Give it to the youngsters—take it yourself. There will be no disagreeable after-effects. 60c. and $1.20 a bottle. At your druggist's. Give it a trial.

Bowels Become Normal

—Liver livens up, bile flows freely—headache, biliousness, tongue-fur, stomach-sourness, disappear when Dr. King's New Life Pills get in their natural, comfortable action.

Purgatives, never pleasantly corrective, sometimes habit-forming, should not be taken to rack the system violently. Nature's way is the way of Dr. King's New Life Pills—gently but firmly functioning the bowels, eliminating the intestine-clogging waste, and promoting the most gratifying results. Cleanse the system with them and know the boon of regular bowels. 25c. at all druggists.

It is now immaterial whether that Michigan jury finds Newberry guilty or acquits him in a minute. In the eyes of the public he has been convicted of being the beneficiary of one of the most corrupt campaigns in history. The entire state of Michigan has been convicted of venality, if it is possible to convict many people for the crimes of a few. Newberry may be discharged as soon as the case gets to the jury. The prosecution may be branded a frameup. The senate may admit Newberry into its holiest of holies. But across the commission handed him by the state of Michigan there is a black and indelible brand. It is the sinuous mark of bribery and perjury. In the eyes of an entire nation Newberry stands the convicted recipient of the most braze outrage ever perpetrated on the people of a commonwealth. If it be true, as charged by the defense, that Newberry's opponent was involved in a similar maze of corruption, it only makes the shame of Michigan the greater.

Possibly the citizens of the Sixth District might resent a suggestion from the outside, but we consider it a matter of statewide service to express the sincere hope that the voters of the Sixth District will send Elmer Thomas to congress during this good year. We are convinced that Oklahoma does not have within her borders a man better equipped for congressional service than Elmer Thomas. He is the state's best parliamentarian. He is also the state's most experienced legislator. He has a record for things done to his credit, and that record is absolutely clean. He would soon take rank with the leading congressmen of the nation and his election would be of distinct advantage to every district in Oklahoma. Believing that his election would help this district as much as it would the Sixth, we hope that we may not be considered presumptuous for endorsing his candidacy.

Times change the minds of men a great deal. In the sixties it was obnoxious to the Rhode Islanders to talk of states rights, but since we have taken their booze away from them they are splitting their throats over the death of states rights. What we want to see is for some of those little fellows to secede on a states rights grouch and then let the southern states whip the devil out of them and make them like it.—Poteau News.

Last week while the legislature was in session a Republican representative from near the Kansas line said to Sam H. Hargis of Ada, "We licked you in the sixties and made you let the negro men vote and now we are going to lick you again and make you let the negro women vote." You will have to guess Captain Hargis's reply as the postal laws will not permit us to publish it.

That a race war should be threatened in Lincoln County is surprising enough, but nothing like so surprising as the action of the officers in taking a negro prisoner to Wewoka for safe keeping. The biggest surprise of all is that the people of Wewoka didn't lynch the officers as well as the negro.

Since our congressmen were so eager for the legislature to legislate in a hurry and go home we have been hopeful that congress might do something of the kind itself, but as yet they have made no move towards an early adjournment. Still we have hopes.

Herbert Hoover answers his triumvirate of critics by admitting that he is a different Democrat from Bryan, a different Republican from Penrose and a different patriot from Hearst. If brevity is the soul of wit, then Hoover is about the wittiest man in the public eye.

The legislative opponents of the Susan B. Anthony amendment didn't pay any more attention to the Muskogee platform than the supporters of the amendment did to the St. Louis platform.

Mr. Bryan honestly believes that the liquor issue is the paramount issue of the opening campaign. Strange that John Barleycorn never became the paramount issue until after his death.

The fact that we have the Ten Commandments is proof that they didn't have to be ratified by the United States senate.

We are opposed to the secession of Rhode Island unless her example should lead to the secession of Milwaukee.

observer put it, "there are no high jinks." It is considered that a prohibition movement in Argentina would find a very strong sentiment to overcome. Recent despatches from the United States telling of the intention of North American prohibitionists to invade South America did not appear to cause much concern here where indulgence in some sort of alcoholic liquor is almost universal. The newspapers ignored the despatches editorially. One entire province, Mendoza, is devoted to the wine industry and just as in the Latin American countries of Europe, the drinking of wine seems to be regarded almost as natural as the drinking of water. There are probably as many bars in Buenos Aires in proportion to population as there were in New York in pre-prohibition days. In these bars, thirst Americans just arrived from the United States find familiar drinks. The "Manhattan", "Bronx" and "Clover Club" cocktails are as well known by same names as in New York. The "Martini" however is here called a "San Martini" which is the name of one of the patriots of Argentine history.

INVESTIGATE SMITH'S RECORD AND ABILITY

I find that it is impossible for me to see everyone before the election tomorrow more especially the women voters. In my race for commissioner of Public Works and Property I have received the most encouragement any one could hope to receive. I believe there is no doubt that tomorrow I shall be elected by a substantial majority. I want to assure every voter that I shall appreciate his or her vote and influence.

My record is open for investigation. Look me up. If my record is clear and my qualifications ample, cast your vote for me tomorrow. I thank you.

WALTER S. SMITH,
Candidate for Commissioner of public works and property. (Pol. adv.)

MRS. ROBERTSON THANKS GOOD PEOPLE OF ADA

Ada, Okla., March 15, 1920.
On the eve of leaving this city and country, I am taking this means of again expressing the deep sense of appreciation I feel to those who have been so very kind to me, especially the courtesies extended to me by Messrs. Wimbley & Duncan. Surely friends in my beloved Scotland could have done no more to make my bereavement possible to bear than my friends here have done, and I bid you goodbye and God's blessings.
Very sincerely,
MARGARET ROBERTSON.

NORMAL STUDENTS ORGANIZE Y.M.C.A.

A number of the male portion of the E. C. S. C. students met Saturday, March 13th, and organized a local order of the Young Men's Christian Association. About 17 members were lined up, and the following officers elected: Oliver Vernon, president; W. K. Newcomb, vice-president; Raymond Cassidy, secretary; William Riddle, treasurer; Clifton Parker, sergeant at arms and Prof. Norris, chaplain.

A committee was formed for the purpose of framing a constitution, and to see the different aims at the Normal and what the "Y" will mean to the young men students of their school. Practically all the young men of the school are interested in the Y. M. C. A., and much interest and pep has been manifested which shows the popularity of "Y" in the school. More pep has already been shown over the "Y" than any other organization at the Normal.

The boys are to be congratulated on taking this step, as a Y. M. C. A. is an organization which Ada has long needed and it is hoped that all the boys of Ada may become interested and a "Y" hut be erected in Ada in the near future so that not only the students but all the young men of Ada as well may have a place for recreation and study.

The next meeting of the new organization will be held Tuesday at 11:15 at the Normal.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

MOTHER POLAR BEAR.

Mother Polar Bear was all alone and she was talking softly to herself. "Ah," she said, "in such a short time my two little baby bears will come to me. Either one or two will come along and I am waiting for them in this little snug den on the great ice covered water up north.

"I am away from the great world, away where no one can harm my babies, away from everything. But should anyone come near me I would defend my babies and look after them even if it cost me my life.

"I would try to save my life, of course, for I need it to look after my babies, but if that was impossible in order to save them I would save them first and then hope that they would be all right.

"We're a funny lot, we polar bears. We're wild and we are fierce and we are strong.

"In the summer we all live far from the coast and the shore. We're off where there is ice and weather as cold as there can be.

"In the spring we often take long swimming trips out to sea and along the coasts and in the winter we are near the coasts for we must be near food whenever the times become hard.

"They say it is wonderful that we can find food, no matter where we may be, or no matter how terribly hard a year it is.

"Sometimes we've been known to attack human beings in the winter time far up North where the ice was so thick and the food so thin.

"At least, I suppose you would call the food that when there wasn't much of it. But in the spring and in the summer and most of the time we can find food, for we're smart and clever and hard workers and lands and waters where there isn't so much food, will never discourage us.

"For years we have been able to live, and for years more we will live.

"It means the ice."

looking after ourselves and our own, and our tummies and the food we get.

"How delicious a meal we do get often of perhaps seal or perhaps walrus. Both those are delicacies for any polar bear.

"And we can capture them. We are stronger and we are so clever and so wild and quick we can capture them and kill them and then eat them with relish and with joy.

"But while it is good to think of all the fine meals of walrus and seal I have had, and while it is good to know that there will be more of those meals, the joyful thought I have now is to know that before long my little cubs will arrive.

"And they will be quiet with their old mother while they are young and the winter is hard.

"But they will be strong enough when the spring comes to follow me along and jump right into the icy water after me and swim about in it.

"Sometimes they can jump in very, very young, but I will wait with my cubs until the weather is springlike which means that I will wait until the ice is breaking up into great packs and gigantic pieces.

"Spring to a polar bear doesn't mean warm weather and such things as buds and flowers and soft breezes; it means the ice sailing along in enormous pieces, floating down the rivers and down the coasts of the sea.

"But no one will harm my babies. No, a mother polar bear loves her little cubs and she will protect them with her own life. Nothing is so much to her as their lives.

"Ah, it is so wonderful to wait for them, and soon I will see the little dears, or the little dear as the case may be.

"And when I take them out into the great world I will be able to hold them safely between me and my forelegs when I'm swimming, if there is danger around and if anyone should shoot.

"For, if they were well out of the way by the time the bullet hit me they would be able to swim to safety before they could be captured.

"But I am a quick swimmer and they won't get me. No, old Mother Polar will be safe and so will her precious darlings.

"Ah, the winter," she said to herself, "the cold, cold, bitter winter, how I love it. For it is warm to me, warm to my mother's heart, for the little cubs come to me then and they keep Mother Polar's heart so warm and so happy."

OKLAHOMA CITY NEWSBOY TO HELP JEWISH WAR RELIEF

Sam Fein, eleven-year-old Oklahoma City newsboy, isn't blessed with an over supply of this world's goods. But Sam has a far reaching voice and an industrious spirit that enables him to sell many newspapers each day, and a charitable heart that makes him want to help others who are less fortunate.

When Sam heard of the suffering among thousands of Jewish war victims in Europe, he promptly declared that from now on until April 5, all his profits will be donated to a fund the Oklahoma State Jewish Relief Committee is raising to relieve suffering abroad. The committee's campaign for funds will run from April 5 to 12.

Sam Fein

The state is asked to contribute $250,000 toward a fund of $35,000,000 which is America's quota.

"When I heard of thousands of little Jewish boys and girls dying of starvation I made up my mind right then that I was going to help," said Sam. "Every time I sit down to a square meal I think of those hungry kids over there and it just makes me ache to do something for them. I can't send them part of my earnings, so I'm going to give 'em my profits."

Sam declares he is going to "line up the fellows" who sell papers to join him in his charitable enterprise, so that the newsboys of Oklahoma City will be represented with a life size donation among citizens who have contributed to save the lives of innocent victims of the war.

GEORGE ADE ENDORSES JEWISH WAR RELIEF

Work of the Oklahoma State Jewish Relief Committee, which will conduct a campaign April 5 to 12 for funds to relieve the suffering of destitute thousands in Europe, has been endorsed by George Ade, the famous author.

"In my campaign to feed the hungry or shelter the homeless it is taken for granted that the Jews will do their full share and then over subscribe their quota," said Mr. Ade. "Now the Jews of America are facing a tremendous task in saving from starvation millions of innocent war victims abroad. They are going from among the ranks of their own people to ask assistance in financing this great undertaking."

"If every citizen of Oklahoma who has been somewhat directly the beneficiary of Jewish philanthropy should now help the Oklahoma State Jewish Relief Committee, the necessary funds would be ready tomorrow. They should come tomorrow."

Mrs. M. J. Miller returned this morning to her home in Okmulgee after visiting friends in the city yesterday.

Roy Weddle, electrical worker at the Oklahoma Portland Cement Co., spent the week end at his home in Oklahoma City.

Merle Sears teacher of manual training in the Roff schools, spent Saturday in the city visiting his parents and friends.

Capt. Nixon, recruiting officer of the 2nd Engineers, spent Saturday in Lehigh and Coalgate securing new recruits for his regiment.

J. F. Hatcher, principal of the Jr. High School at Chickasha, was visiting the Normal Saturday as the guest of Prof. J. M. Gordon.

Miss Agnes Hall, student of the Normal, was accompanied by the Misses Dorothy and Mary Waggoner to her home in Maud to spend the week end.

Miss Ruby West has as her house guests Misses Bonnie Robinson and Verdie Arbuckle of Maud and Miss Daisy Bee Cusenberry of Coalgate.

W. P. Hill of McAlester is in Ada today looking after professional business matters. Mr. Hill is one of the most prominent young attorneys eastern Oklahoma.

Clyde Irwin, brother of Grant Irwin, is back home from the Wesley Hospital in Oklahoma City where he has been for several days recuperating from injuries received in a fall.

F. W. Anderson was able to come down town today for the first time in a fortnight. He received an ugly cut on the arm while watching a fight on Main Street two Sundays ago, and blood poisoning developing caused him to be in a critical condition for two weeks. The trouble finally yielded to medical treatment and he now seems to be out of danger.

Mrs. T. W. Wyatt of Ft. Smith returned to her home this morning after visiting in the city with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. McNatt.

Mrs. Henry Landers left on the midnight Frisco last night for Fort Worth, Texas, where she will meet her daughter, Mrs. Owen Fauntleroy who is on her way to Dallas to enter a hospital. It is understood that Mrs. Fauntleroy has been suffering from gall stones for some time and is in a very dangerous condition. She will undergo an operation in Dallas.

L. E. Franklin returned yesterday from Las Cruces, New Mexico, where he had been visiting his sister who had been seriously ill. He speaks enthusiastically of the valley country in lower New Mexico, where the introduction of irrigation has wrought marvels in an agricultural way. Mr. Franklin visited El Paso and crossed the river into old Mexico to take a peep at the edge of Carranza's country.

No. 50 Two-hole with vessels and three disc. $26.50

The greatest attraction to our offer on these Durham Fireless Cookers is the price and as to the quality of the cooker, you will only have to try one of them to be convinced that it is the best you have ever seen.

During the hot summer days which are soon to come there is nothing nicer than preparing your roast or chicken early in the morning and when dinner time comes all you have to do is to raise the lid to the cooker, take out your roast, chicken or anything else you see fit to put in them and they will be all done ready for the table. No one really knows what good meat is until it has been cooked in a Durham Fireless Cooker.

SALT, PEPPER, SUGAR.

"The Sugar Bowl doesn't appreciate us," said the Salt Cellar.

"Who do you mean when you say us?" asked the Sugar Bowl.

"I mean Pepper Shaker and myself," said the Salt Cellar.

"And why do you not think I appreciate you?" asked the Sugar Bowl.

"I'm sure I don't know why you don't," said the Salt Cellar. "Anything would think you ought to. Any one, with any sense, appreciates us."

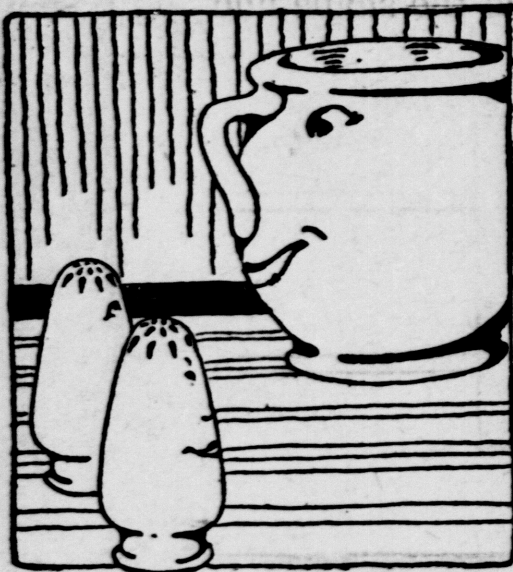

"Of course," said the Sugar Bowl, "I expect you to be a little rude at times. I expect you would be a scrap sharp and all of that. But I do not mind. I am sweet enough to forgive you."

"But you haven't told me whether you appreciate me or not?" said the Salt Cellar. "and I do want to make the Sugar Bowl say that it does appreciate the Salt Cellar and the Pepper Shaker. It would show that the Sugar Bowl had something else besides sweetness."

"What else could I have or would I want to have besides sweetness?" asked the Sugar Bowl. "Isn't it enough that I am always sweet?"

"No," said the Salt Cellar. "It is not. There are lots of sweet creatures who never say anything mean and who never do any harm, but at the same time they don't do anything especially kind and they don't do anything especially helpful."

"They're sweet enough but they haven't much character. Now you will show character if you not only smile sweetly upon me but if you will admit that the Salt Cellar and the Pepper Shaker have good work to do in the world."

"Ah, yes," said the Sugar Bowl, "I will admit it, and I think I should appreciate other creatures and things more than I do. I am glad we've had this talk."

"It is true—I have felt that I was so sweet I didn't have to do anything. Just because I never did anything which was sour and mean I thought I was good enough. But I wasn't. I understand that now."

"Creatures and things aren't to be admired who won't take the trouble to go out of their way to do nice things. And as the Sugar Bowl can't go walking around looking for nice things to do at least it can admire the Salt Cellar and the Pepper Shaker for the work they do in seasoning and making things have a good taste."

"Ah, Sugar Bowl," said the Salt Cellar, "I am glad to hear you talk this way. For some time I have been afraid that you didn't have enough character. I was very much afraid that you were becoming too sugary and too weak."

"The Pepper Shaker would tell you too how much he thinks of you but if he comes about too much he is apt to make people sneeze. He doesn't like to do that. He can't help it if too much of him is used, but he hates to be used like that. He likes to add to the taste of things, but not to be made out a cruel creature."

"Yes, he had a terrible blow once. He was treated so badly! It wasn't fair to him at all."

"Some very mean boys and girls thought it would be fun to put sneezing powder in the flowers which they would give to their friends to smell. Then as their friends began to sneeze they would laugh."

"Well, a great deal of my Pepper friend was used then. He made those people sneeze and he didn't want to in the least. Oh, he did feel so badly about it. It wasn't funny he said, it was mean, straight and out mean! The people who sneezed were miserable. Their noses hurt, their throats hurt and they couldn't sleep for several nights."

"One little girl who had sneezed so hard and so much lost her voice for several days for the sneezing powder got down in her throat, and her throat has never been quite so strong since."

"So I think we should all be used in our places and not too much of any of us, for if too much sugar is used things will be sickish and if too much pepper or salt is used the poor pepper and salt creatures are taken a mean advantage of!"

View of the port of Ragusa

The town of Ragusa, in Dalmatia, is an object in the present boundary dispute between the Italians and the Yugoslavs. Should the Yugoslavs fall to get Fiume and receive Ragusa they intend to make out of the latter city a port that will rival Fiume. This task would take years to accomplish and would make necessary the expenditure of many millions of dollars.

Speakers at Munich mass meeting protesting against deliverance of German war criminals.

As soon as the allies presented their demands for the delivery of about 800 Germans, including such national heroes as Hindenberg, Ludendorff, Mackensen, etc., great demonstrations were held all over Germany in protest against the compliance of Germany to the allies' demands. One of the mass meetings was held at Munich, and the photo shows the speakers in action. Signs read: "Against the Deliverance." Apparently the protests were successful in inducing the allies to back down.

TEACHER SHORTAGE A GRAVE PROBLEM

CONDITION RELIEVED IN SOME PARTS OF COUNTRY ONLY TO GROW WORSE IN OTHER PARTS.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The teacher shortage situation, while in some parts of the country slightly better than last October when the National Education Association made its inquiry, is still a very grave problem, according to reports received by the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior.

On February 13 the commissioner of education found, on the basis of returns from state school officers, that there are 18,279 schools closed because of the lack of teachers, and 41,900 schools taught by teachers characterized as "below standard, but taken on temporarily in the emergency." The largest shortages are as follows: Kentucky, 2,250; Texas, 2,055; Virginia, 2,000; Georgia, 1,500; North Carolina, 700; and Iowa, 600.

Substandard teachers are reported as follows: Texas, 4,000; Virginia, 3,500; Alabama, 3,500; Georgia, 3,000; Tennessee, 3,000; Minnesota, 1,880; Illinois, 1,200; Kentucky, 1,100; New York, 1,100; South Carolina, 1,000.

provision is made for children in territories where schools are closed?" eighteen states report that children are transferred to other schools, three states report no provision, one state report requires "some," two states report that the majority of children are losing the grade.

In response to the question, "Are people moving to centers of population?" six states report that no data are at hand; five states report "very little," three states report a considerable movement, and four states report "none."

In response to the question, "To what extent are taxpayers interesting themselves in paying better salaries for teachers?" 14 states report that the interest is general. One state reports "great interest," and one state reports very large interest, while another reports that they are "doing their best."

One significant fact in connection with the shortage of teachers is that 190 state, county, city and private normal schools report 11,503 fewer students November 1, 1919, than they had the year previous to the war. These schools reporting represent 60 per cent of the total normal schools, and on this basis, there would be a shortage of 19,170, and at graduation time, 1920, there will be 7,000 fewer graduates from the normal schools. Teacher training departments in colleges show approximately the same falling off in those preparing to teach, although other

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, painful or disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c.

"FINEST ON EARTH" SAYS MRS. DALEY

"They said I couldn't live more than six months longer, but I'm still here and feeling fine," said Mrs. Mary Daley, of 530 Oak St., San Francisco, Cal.

"I have actually gained" seventeen pounds since I began taking Tanlac," she continued, "and to look at me one wouldn't think that for several months I was unable to do my housework. I suffered from gastritis all the time, would bloat terribly and always felt miserable. I had no appetite and felt nauseated all the time. I was so nervous the least little noise would startle me and it was almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I had night sweats and was so run down and weak that the slightest exertion would almost exhaust me completely. I lost weight dreadfully and was told that I couldn't live six months at the rate I was then going down hill."

"Nothing helped me until I began taking Tanlac and I honestly believe it is the finest medicine in the world, for it has made me just like a new person. My appetite is splendid and I never have the slightest indigestion any more and I never enjoyed such fine and refreshing sleep in my life as I do now. My house has eight rooms and I do all the work with ease. Tanlac has been a god-send to me and I would be selfish not to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Co., in Stonewall by L. P. Carpenter, in Francis by Francis Drug Co., and in Roff by Dowdy's Pharmacy. adv departments show a great increase in enrollment.

"Another significant fact is revealed," says A. O. Neal of the Bureau's division of rural education, in commenting upon the situation. Since 1890 there has been a continuous and increasing withdrawal of men teachers from the profession. The percentage of men teachers in 1890 was 37 per cent. In 1910 it had fallen to 22 per cent, and in 1918 to 17 per cent. In other words, in 1890 one teacher in three was a man; in 1910 one teacher in five; and in 1918 one teacher in six was a man.

"The question of teachers' salaries is vital in this discussion, and a comparison of teachers' salaries from 1916 to 1918, the latest complete statistics available, show that in the two years, from 1916 to 1918, the average teachers' salary advanced from $563 per year to $635 per year.

an increase of $72, or 13 per cent in the two years. The total figures for 1918 show that the average salary for elementary teachers in the United States was $606, and the average salary for high school teachers, $1,031. The bureau is now collecting salary schedules from various states, giving the actual salaries received by individual teachers in three counties in each state. These show that the salaries of rural teachers are far below this average in many states, and that salaries as low as $150 to $200 per annum are found in many localities.

"Another cause of teachers withdrawing from the profession is found in the lack of provision made for suitable homes in the community where the teachers may become a part of the social organization. This is particularly true in rural districts where in many communities they are providing teachers' homes in connection with the schools."

So many office holders vote too often from fear of losing their political scalp than on the true merits of the proposition. There was a greater principle at stake in voting on this amendment to Democrat Coyne than merely denying the right of the ballot to the women, and by his vote he dared to remain a supporter of state rights. "THE WILLOW TREE" TO BE SHOWN HERE

Viola Dana is Star of Big Screen Production Soon at the Liberty Theatre

"The Willow Tree," the big Screen Classics, Inc., production, starring Viola Dana, is booked as the feature attraction at the Liberty Theatre beginning today. "The low tree" is the picturization of the famous Cohan & Harris stage success by J. H. Benrimo and Harrison Rhodes, which was the theatrical sensation of a season when it was produced on Broadway in New York.

The screen production "The Willow Tree" has been conducted along unusually lavish lines, no expense being spared in the picturization of the famous play the undoubted success on the screen that it was on the stage. The scene of the play is laid in quaint old Japan, and the settings for this were an unusually costly feature of the production. No pains and expense were spared to recreate the Orient, the land of the rising sun, where most of the action of "The Willow Tree" transpires.

Viola Dana, who plays the stellar role in the picture, is one of the foremost stars on the screen. Her following has so rapidly increased through her dainty and appealing characterizations that she has become a drawing card of high power wherever her pictures are shown. "The Willow Tree" is a production fully worthy of her talents and charm.

JOHN CECIL, C. E. WORKER SPEAKS HERE TOMORROW

John Cecil, recently appointed field secretary for the Southwest Federation of Christian Endeavor with headquarters in Amarillo, Tex., will arrive here tomorrow noon to begin his first duties in this great work in the state of Oklahoma. Ada considers this a great honor to have this splendid young man among first of the few towns which he will visit in this state.

Mr. Cecil will work in seven states which are: Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Utah and part of Wyoming. Mr. Cecil was secretary of the West Lake Community Y. M. C. A. at Minneapolis, Minn., until he went to Amarillo week before last to begin this work.

Mr. Cecil assisted in a Christian Endeavor meeting in Denison, Tex., March 6 and went on to Dallas for a conference with W. Roy Breg, executive secretary for the Federation. During the war Mr. Cecil was in military service and served as editor of a regimental magazine called "Thirty-Second News." He was later appointed sport writer for "La Petite Gironde," a Franco-American sheet, published by Briggs Davenport, journalist and traveler.

As a sergeant he was detailed by General Connors as the official correspondent of Base Section No. 2 for Stars and Stripes. Later he was detailed to the Base Section Welfare Officer with headquarters at Bordeaux to gather material for a base section history of all welfare organizations.

In May of last year he received an appointment to a newspaper tour of the A. E. F., including all base sections, intermediate sections, the front, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxemburg, and Germany. This was the tour of newspaper men to which is referred in the organization called "Fighting Journalists."

Mr. Cecil wants to talk to both the old men and the young and he has something good that he wants to tell both. Two great propositions that he wants to explain are the meaning and the good of a C. E. U. and a C. E. A. A. Come and see what these letters mean and what good they can do for Ada.

Don't forget the place and time, Presbyterian Church, Tuesday, March 16, at 8 o'clock P. M.

KONAWA BANKER REPORTED SUICIDE

H. T. King, for many years a leading banker of Konawa, is suspected of having committed suicide in New Orleans, according to reports reaching the Evening News. A letter from Mr. King, written at New Orleans, is said to have reached his family in Oklahoma and made them believe that he had killed himself before the letter was received. Relatives and friends have been in New Orleans making an investigation, but it is stated that no trace of Mr. King has been found. It is believed by many of his friends that he is somewhere in the Mississippi.

During the past three years Mr. King has resided in Oklahoma City, but for a number of years he was in the banking business at Konawa and was rated as one of the most successful bankers in this section of Oklahoma.

CLEANER MAKE CLEANUP OF ALL KERRIGAN'S APPAREL

You have all heard the story of the farmer who goes to the city barber shop for a shave, and is given a haircut, shampoo, massage, three dollars' worth of grooming before he knew what was happening. Something nearly like that happened to J. Warren Kerrigan while filming "The Lord Loves the Irish," his new Hodkinson release, which is the attraction at the Liberty Theatre beginning Wednesday.

While out on location far from the studio the director informed Mr. Kerrigan that he would need a certain costume for the next day's work and the star chanced to remember that the suit needed pressing. So he called up a clothes cleaner, long distance, and gave instructions to do a rush job on the costume. He gave implicit instructions for finding it in his dressing rooms at the Brunton Studios in Hollywood, and knew that there would be no trouble, as all the costumes in his dressing room wardrobe were plainly numbered.

When he returned to the studio late that night he found that the cleaner had called for his clothes, and taken them away, but not only the suit that needed cleaning. He had stripped the wardrobe bare, taking thirty-two suits of clothes, the star's dress suit, a motor coat and dressing gown. He was forced to choose between going home in the costume of an Irish country yokel, bare of foot and ragged about sleeve and trousers legs, or to don a policeman's uniform, also used in the picture. He chose the uniform.

Next morning the cleaner returned the missing wardrobe, all nicely pressed and cleaned—and not one of the others had needed cleaning at all; in fact some of them had to be soiled again by the application of dust and water before they could be used.

To My Friends in Ada

Tomorrow is election day and this will be my last statement to the voters of Ada. I wish to thank those who have offered me their support and to assure them that I will appreciate any assistance they may find it possible to lend my candidacy. I simply ask my friends to go to the polls tomorrow and vote for what they consider the best interests of Ada. If you see fit to honor me with the office to which I aspire, I assure I shall be most grateful.

Very respectfully,

MAUD V. SNEAD.
